EVENT

"The Stylist Project"

Vanity Fair and Dior brought artist Kimberly Brooks's newest exhibition, "The Stylist Project," to an audience via two events held on February 18 and March 1. Both displayed selected portraits from the collection featuring prominent stylists, costume designers, and tastemakers styling themselves, such as Rose Apodaca, Arianne Phillips, Cameron Silver, and Rachel Zoe. The first, an exclusive invitation-only breakfast held at the Dior Beverly Hills boutique, celebrated the artist and was attended by notables including Taryn Rose and Elizabeth Stewart. The latter event, a cocktail reception, held at LeadApron Gallery, included a special portrait of Ginnifer Goodwin adorned in Dior, and drew a celebrity crowd with Abbie Cornish, Christina Hendricks, Marisa Tomei, and James Van Der Beek. Both events benefited P.S. ARTS.

NICORETTE

CONTEST

Quit to Win

Introducing the all-new Nicorette mini Lozenge. It dissolves up to three-times faster* than other stop-smoking lozenges and can help make quitting suck less.

We know it is hard to quit, so we want to reward your efforts. Tell us what motivates you to stop smoking and enter the Nicorette "mini Moments" Contest, where you can win a chance to meet celebrity-addiction expert, Dr. Drew Pinsky, in Los Angeles. Visit facebook.com/nicorette for more details and complete rules.

* Speed of release does not infer speed of craving relief.

NO PURCHASE NECESSARY. Contest begins on April 26, 2010, at 12:00 A.M. EST, and ends June 30, 2010, 11:59 P.M. EST. Open to legal residents of the 50 United States/D.C., 18 years of age or older. For details on how to enter, judging criteria, and prizes, visit nicorette.com or facebook.com/nicorette for official rules.
